

RIGHTS OF EU CITIZENS IN SCOTLAND

EU Citizens and Your Right to Vote

This factsheet provides a brief summary of your right to vote as an EU citizen in Scotland. In this factsheet, 'EU citizens' includes citizens of the EU member states, as well as citizens of the EEA states (Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein), and citizens of Switzerland.

This factsheet also covers the rights of family members who are not themselves EU citizens, and whose right to live in the UK is derived from their relationship with an EU citizen.¹

Following the UK's exit from the European Union (Brexit), the rights of EU citizens in Scotland have changed in some important ways.

EU citizens and their family members who were living in the UK on 31 December 2020 and who wished to stay in Scotland, must have applied to the EU Settlement Scheme (EUSS) for either Settled Status (indefinite leave to remain) or Pre-Settled Status (limited leave to remain for 5 years) before 30 June 2021. Irish citizens and people with indefinite leave to remain did not have to apply. EU citizens and their family members who did not apply to the EUSS before the 30 June 2021 deadline, do not have the right to remain in the UK after 1 July 2021, and should seek urgent legal advice if they now wish to stay in Scotland.

EU citizens who arrived in the UK for the first time on or after 1 January 2021 cannot apply for Settled Status or Pre-Settled Status. They arrive as Short Term Visitors. If they wish to remain for more than a short visit of up to 6 months, they must apply for a Long Term Visa (for example, to study, or work, or join a family member).

Non-EU family members of EU citizens can only enter the UK after 1 January 2021 if they already have an EUSS family permit, a UK-issued EEA family permit or a UK-issued biometric residence card.
